

Summer School for VR Games

Guide teenagers to create immersive and interactive virtual reality game experiences, combining art and technology. the results of this week will eventually be part of a future exhibition in Fundazione Golinelli during November-December 2019.

We are looking for mentors who wish to volunteer to join the development teams. you can be artist, 3d modelist, game designer, VR developer (preferred Unity), musician.